The announcer will make 3 calls for each event. 1st call approximately 15 minutes before the event; 2nd call approximately 10 minutes before the event; 3rd call approximately 5 minutes before the event. All athletes must report to their event on the 3rd call – for running events, athletes report to the starting line or an area near the starting line for that event (all members of relay teams must report); for field events, athletes report to the field event judge in the event area. Failing to report on the 3rd call may result in being scratched from the event.

Jr. High Track Meet at Roy High – Friday, April 22, 2022

Schools Attending: Sand Ridge (Host), TH Bell, North Ogden, Wahlquist

We want to fill all our lanes to give as many athletes as possible a chance to participate. To that end, we have made the following assignments:

Entries listed below apply to both boys and girls events!

Lane Events: 21 entrants, 3 heats of 7

Hurdles: TH Bell 6 entrants, other 3 schools 5 entrants

100: North Ogden 6 entrants, others 5

400: Sand Ridge 6 entrants, others 5

200: Wahlquist 6 entrants, others 5

Relays: 7 teams, 1 heat

4 X 100: TH Bell, North Ogden, Sand Ridge 2 teams, Wahlquist 1 team

Medley: North Ogden, Sand Ridge, Wahlquist 2 teams, TH Bell 1 team

4 X 200: Sand Ridge, Wahlquist, TH Bell 2 teams, North Ogden 1 team

4 X 400: Wahlquist, TH Bell, North Ogden 2 teams, Sand Ridge 1 team

School assignments are rotated alphabetically for all the above entries. Assignments will be rotated each year.

Distance:

800 – 2 heats: Heat 1 – 5 entrants per school; Heat 2 – unlimited entries

1600 – 1 heat, 6 entrants per school

Long Jump, Discus, Shot: each school gets 5 entrants, 3 jumps or throws only

High Jump: each school gets 5 entrants, 2 attempts only at first 2 heights

The Host Jr. High School is responsible for sending five (5) faculty members to help at the meet. Four will supervise a field event (one each at the Long Jump, High Jump, Shot Put, Discus). High school athletes will run those events, the faculty member is there to supervise and assist with any problems or questions that may arise. The fifth faculty member will be assigned to help with crowd control (Keeping spectators off the football field, the track, or other areas of the stadium that are not for spectators).
